

Ezra A. Murdock

Ezra Allan Murdock, 85, died in a Salt Lake hospital on December 18, 1983, following a stroke. He was born July 26, 1898, at Charleston, Utah, to Alva Nymphas Murdock and Margaret Jean Watson, but moved to Sugar City, Idaho, as a boy. He graduated from Brigham Young University and filled a mission to Mexico. He married Mattie Teresa Piquet on August 10, 1933, in the Logan Temple. He and Mattie lived in Driggs, Idaho, where he had a dry farm. They were very active in the LDS Church, especially devoting their lives to temple and genealogy work. Ezra was president of the 144th Quorum of Seventy and enjoyed his speaking assignments. In 1978, he and Mattie were called to serve a mission in Little Rock, Arkansas. After the mission and Mattie's death, he made his home in Salt Lake City.

His survivors include: One daughter, three sons, Mrs. Dix K. (Mary Jean) Waddell and Allan L. Murdock, Salt Lake City; Frank Murdock, Idaho Falls; Don Murdock, Pocatello; 18 grandchildren; brothers, Marion, Leland, Stanley, and Bernell.

Funeral services will be Thursday, Dec. 22, 1983, 12 p.m., at the Cottonwood 12th Ward, 1750 Spring Lane (5240 So.), Salt Lake City, and Friday, 12 p.m., at the Driggs 1st Ward, Driggs, Idaho. Family and friends may call one hour earlier at each location. Interment will be at the Bates Cemetery.

NT 12-20

N3 12-21

Obituaries

Ezra Allan Murdock

Ezra Allan Murdock, 85, died in a Salt Lake hospital on December 18, 1983, following a stroke. He was born July 26, 1898, at Charleston, Utah, to Alva Nymphas Murdock and Margaret Jean Watson, but moved to Sugar City, Idaho, as a boy. He graduated from Brigham Young University and filled a mission to Mexico. He married Mattie Teresa Piquet on August 10, 1933, in the Logan Temple. He and

Mattie lived in Driggs, Idaho, where he had a dry farm. They were very active in the LDS Church, especially devoting their lives to temple and genealogy work. Ezra was president of the 144th Quorum of Seventy and enjoyed his speaking assignments. In 1978, he and Mattie were called to serve a mission in Little Rock, Arkansas. After the mission and Mattie's death, he made his home in Salt Lake City.

His survivors include: One daughter, three sons, Mrs. Dix K. (Mary Jean) Waddell and Allan L. Murdock, were held Thursday, Dec. 22, 1983, at the Cottonwood 12th Ward, Salt Lake City, and Friday at the Driggs 1st Ward, Driggs, Idaho. Interment will be at the Bates Cemetery.

Funeral services

Ezra A. Murdock

Ezra Allan Murdock, 85, died in a Salt Lake hospital on December 18, 1983, following a stroke. He was born July 26, 1898, at Charleston, Utah, to Alva Nymphas Murdock and Margaret Jean Watson, but moved to Sugar City, Idaho, as a boy. He graduated from Brigham Young University and filled a mission to Mexico. He married Mattie Teresa Piquet on August 10, 1933, in the Logan Temple. He and Mattie lived in Driggs, Idaho, where he had a dry farm. They were very active in the LDS Church, especially devoting their lives to temple and genealogy work. Ezra was president of the 144th Quorum of Seventy and enjoyed his speaking assignments. In 1978, he and Mattie were called to serve a mission in Little Rock, Arkansas. After the mission and Mattie's death, he made his home in Salt Lake City.

His survivors include: One daughter, three sons, Mrs. Dix K. (Mary Jean) Waddell and Allan L. Murdock, Salt Lake City; Frank Murdock, Idaho Falls; Don Murdock, Pocatello; 18 grandchildren; brothers, Marion, Leland, Stanley, and Bernell.

Funeral services will be Thursday, Dec. 22, 1983, 12 p.m., at the Cottonwood 12th Ward, 1750 Spring Lane (5240 So.), Salt Lake City, and Friday, 12 p.m., at the Driggs 1st Ward, Driggs, Idaho. Family and friends may call one hour earlier at each location. Interment will be at the Bates Cemetery.

NT 12-20

N3 12-21

Obituaries

Ezra Allan Murdock

Ezra Allan Murdock, 85, died in a Salt Lake hospital on December 18, 1983, following a stroke. He was born July 26, 1898, at Charleston, Utah, to Alva Nymphas Murdock and Margaret Jean Watson, but moved to Sugar City, Idaho, as a boy. He graduated from Brigham Young University and filled a mission to Mexico. He married Mattie Teresa Piquet on August 10, 1933, in the Logan Temple. He and

Mattie lived in Driggs, Idaho, where he had a dry farm. They were very active in the LDS Church, especially devoting their lives to temple and genealogy work. Ezra was president of the 144th Quorum of Seventy and enjoyed his speaking assignments. In 1978, he and Mattie were called to serve a mission in Little Rock, Arkansas. After the mission and Mattie's death, he made his home in Salt Lake City.

His survivors include: One daughter, three sons, Mrs. Dix K. (Mary Jean) Waddell and Allan L. Murdock, were held Thursday, Dec. 22, 1983, at the Cottonwood 12th Ward, Salt Lake City, and Friday at the Driggs 1st Ward, Driggs, Idaho. Interment will be at the Bates Cemetery.

Funeral services